Course III Guiding Questions

How is creation good, as well as fallen?

What is human nature?

What is sin and where does it come from?

How do we respond to the reality of sin?

Why did God become human? What is Jesus' role in salvation?

What does it mean to be redeemed? (process, not a single moment) What are we saved from and what are we save for?

In what ways do we cooperate with and respond to God's work of redemption in our lives, both personally and communally?

How does faith shape our response to suffering, struggle, and loss in our lives?

Note:

Essential questions promote deep and enduring understanding. They cannot be answered in one sentence. Even though they are written simplistically, they are complex enough to be broken down into smaller, guiding questions.

Guiding questions are more detailed questions that support the essential questions of the course.

Challenge Questions

“This element is designed to give catechetical instruction for high-school age young people an apologetical component. Publishers and teachers or catechists are to strive to provide for a catechetical instruction and formation that is imbued with an apologetical approach. Challenges that appear under one particular theme can also apply to other themes in the framework, and such application is encouraged.” Introduction to The Bishops’ Framework

Answers to each of the following questions with references to the Catechism are found in the last section of each course in the Framework. It should be noted, however, that each question has also been addressed within the coursework of the standards.

- A. Why would God the Father allow his Son, Jesus, to suffer and die the way he did?
- B. Why are followers of Jesus Christ sometimes so willing to make sacrifices and to accept pain and suffering, especially in witness to Christ and their faith?
- C. Isn’t making sacrifices and putting up with suffering a sign of weakness?
- D. In the end, isn’t it really only the final result that matters?
