

The St. Joseph Foundation of the Archdiocese of Seattle grants are to provide financial assistance to strengthen and extend the Presences of the Catholic Church throughout Western Washington. The Foundation has three broad areas of interest for grants. Preference will be given to those organizations that align with these areas.

- Catholic Programs: To advance the beliefs, teachings, and programs of the Catholic Church, supporting the spiritual and social needs of the Catholic community in Western Washington.
- Pastoral Ministries: To advance Archdiocesan pastoral ministries that support missionary discipleship, Catholic social teaching, and other efforts to spread the Gospel. This includes special priorities such as the environmental initiatives outlined in Pope Francis' encyclical Laudato Si.'
- Faith Formation/Education: To advance the continuing education and faith formation for lay ministers, deacons, seminarians, and priests in support of advancing the Mission of the Church in Western Washington. – Mt. 28 18-20.

Eligibility:

Grants will be awarded to those organizations that meet the following criteria:

- The grant applicant is a Catholic organization located within the Archdiocese of Seattle, and
- The applicant is tax-exempt under 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code

Grants are not awarded for fundraising events or drives, debt reduction or loan payments, and political activities or organizations. Grants for capital building projects are considered on a case-by-case basis.

Grant applications will be presented for approval to the St. Joseph Foundation Board of Directors at their biannual meeting. Applicants will be notified via email.

Reporting Requirements:

Grantees may be asked to submit periodic progress reports and/or a final report associated with funding objectives. This sample can be used: https://archseattle.org/wp-content/uploads/2024/03/Impact-Report-Template\_3-6-24-min.pdf

We may also ask grantees to acknowledge the Foundation's grant funding through development of a jointly approved statement and/or press release.
